

TOBIAS BARSTOOL

CONTRACT BAR STOOLS

SOLID OAK WOOD BARSTOOL This rustic oak wood bar stool has a lovely aged and distressed finish, giving it an authentic vintage appearance. A new addition to a wide range of restaurant and bar furniture, this quality oak barstool with back has a height-adjustable threaded mechanism, a metal frame and footrest, and a solid oak seat and legs. Additionally, the Tobias barstool can be powder coated in any standard RAL finish. Both the wood and the metal framework of this solid oak barstool display a rustic distressed appearance, making the stool a stunning feature for a restaurant, bar, or private property. This oak and metal barstool is a truly unique piece of heavy and substantially made furniture. Contact us to find out more about this solid oak barstool with back at UHS International.
