CONTRACT DINING CHAIRS

TEMPO DINING CHAIR Looking for industrial furniture? Look no further than the Tempo Side Chair. Though it is most commonly see with a raw steel lacquered frame as a bistro chair, the Tempo frame can be powder coated to almost any colour imaginable. As with all of our contract furniture the Tempo seat pad can be upholstered in numerous fabrics and leathers from our range, or you can select your own material to complete the look you are going for. This Tempo dining chair is available in many beautiful choices of upholstery and finishes. With an ergonomic seat, industrial style, this Tempo chair will add some crispness to your dining space. The satin and sophisticated look created by the Tempo chair is enough to make all your friends green with envy. With this Tempo dining chair, upholstered in luxurious faux leather and comfortably padded, you will not want to leave the table. Give us a call to know more about the Tempo dining chair at UHS International.
