

JOHNSON STOOL

CONTRACT BAR STOOLS

SQUARE WOODEN BARSTOOL With a rustic yet chic design, restaurant owners alike will fall in love with this solid wood restaurant barstool. This metal and wood bar stool is a popular choice for furnishing restaurants, cafes, lounges, bars, and other high-traffic establishments. With a wooden seat in a dark walnut finish, guests will enjoy the comfortable seating of this solid wood restaurant bar stool. The distressed metal frame is powder-coated in black and stabilizes the bar stool. The Johnson Stool is a great example of a simple yet eye-catching stool. With its natural wooden seat, and its slim metal base, it will complement any decor, and you can be sure that this square backless barstool will be the topic of conversation in any environment. Made from steel with a square frame and integrated footrest this solid wood restaurant barstool is not only sturdy but also promotes comfort. The Johnson stool inspired by the engineering factory. It features a steel frame with a wooden seat. Great for the vintage and industrial looks. Contact us to find out more about this square backless barstool at UHS International.
